Lloyds Register Horizons: A Special IMO Sulphur 2020 Supplement

Lloyd's Register Horizons brings together LR's insight into current trends and hot topics in the maritime sector alongside expert views from our people on regulation, technology and innovation. You can also read a selection of technical investigation cases, along with a round-up of the latest developments at LR from our teams around the globe.

Our newest issue has just been released which focuses specifically on Sulphur 2020. It provides some commentary from our experts on key issues the shipping industry will face and how you can be best prepared to ensure the transition to Very Low Sulphur Fuels (VLSFO) is as smooth as possible. This edition also provides some insight from a ship owner's point of view and their opinions on the main challenges faced.

You can download the newest edition here.
